(Case called; appearances noted)

THE COURT: Good afternoon, everyone. We're here on the proposed preliminary approval of the settlement with Deutsche Bank, and I had some questions -- and I guess I'll direct them first to plaintiffs' counsel, although I'm happy to have answers from either side. I did not see anywhere in your proposed settlement order, approval order, or anywhere else even in your papers an express statement of who the class consist of; such as a sentence that says, the class consist of X. Now one would have thought that that would be the most elementary item that should have been included given that this is a proposed settlement of a class. So if I missed it, point it out to me, but I don't see it.

MR. BOIES: Your Honor, we agree completely. It is the most elemental thing. It is stated in the complaint, and we probably should have included it.

THE COURT: This is nothing to do with the complaint. Lots of things are stated in the complaint that are challenged. The closest you come, is near as I can tell, is in your proposed notice where -- let me find that. Hold on one minute. You say -- you address it to "all victims of Jeffrey Epstein sex trafficking venture during the time period between August 19, 2013 to August 10, 2019," but that clearly is not a sufficient definition of a class.

Then you say in page two of your proposed notice under

N61BDEUC

1 the heading "Description of the litigation and the class," you
2 say -- you don't define the class, but you say the proposed
3 settlement if approved by the Court will settle claims of the 4 class as defined on pages blank below. So then I looked 5 through all the unnumbered pages hoping to find a definition of 6 a class. And the best I could find on page four under the 7 heading, How do I know if I am a class member. And you say "If 8 you were abused or trafficked by Jeffrey Epstein and/or his 9 associates during the period between August 19, 2013 and August
10 10, 2019, inclusive and are not otherwise excluded, you are a 11 class member."

12 Now, if I'm someone reading this, let's say I'm 13 someone who had consensual sex with Jeffrey Epstein when I was 14 a minor, am I covered?

15 MR. BOIES: I think that is an excellent question,
16 your Honor. I would direct the Court's attention first to page
17 six of the stipulation of settlement.

18 THE COURT: All right. Let me look at that. Hang on.
19 I've got your proposed order, and I've got your memorandum of 20 law and this was, if I recall, an exhibit. Let me see if my 21 law clerk has a copy.

22 MR. CASHMORE: Your Honor, we may. I'll furnish a
23 copy. May I approach? Thank you.

24 THE COURT: All right. Page six of the stipulation of 25 settlement.

N61BDEUC

1 MR. BOIES: Look under definitions at the bottom of 2 the page, 1.4.

3 THE COURT: So there -- this of course is not part of 4 the order you gave me asking me to approve this. But in any 5 event the stipulation says, class means all women who were 6 sexually abused or trafficked by Jeffrey Epstein during the 7 time when Deutsche Bank maintained bank accounts for Epstein
8 from August 19, 2013 to August 10, 2019. Defendants stipulate,
9 agree and consent to the definition of class for the sole
10 purpose of the settlement and without prejudice, etc., etc.

11 So I'll put to you the same question I just put 12 before, if I am a minor and I had during the relevant period
13 consensual sex with Jeffrey Epstein, am I covered or not?

14 MR. BOIES: You would be covered, your Honor, and I
15 think --

16 THE COURT: I think it's clear from those who know the 17 statute and all like that that you would be covered, but this 18 is something that's being sent to the victims and they wouldn't 19 have the slightest idea.

20 MR. BOIES: I think you're exactly right, your Honor.
21 I think that that is a lapse and that should be explained.

22 THE COURT: And the term "traffic" again is a term of 23 art that some of the victims might understand and some might 24 not. So the point of this is that I'm disappointed in the 25 notice. I'm disappointed in the proposed order, and we will

N61BDEUC

1 need to get them revised promptly to make them more helpful.

2 Now let me ask a different question which is, if
3 someone puts in a claim, do I understand it's the claims
4 administrator who determines whether they're a member of the 5 class?

6 MR. BOIES: There are two tiers.

7 THE COURT: Right. But who determines whether someone
8 is in tier one, tier two, or not in any tier?

9 MR. BOIES: The first tier is a tier that we submit to 10 the claims administrator placed on our records, and the claim 11 administrator accepts that unless the claims administrator has 12 some reason to question whether the individual is an eligible
13 member of the class.

14 With respect to tier two, that is something where a
15 class member has to fill out a form, and the claims
16 administrator will then analyze the form and take into account
17 whatever additional information the class member provides.

18 THE COURT: So my question then is, why should I turn
19 this over to a claims administrator? And what can you tell me
20 as to why I should select this particular claims administrator?

21 MR. BOIES: Those are obviously two different
22 questions.

23 THE COURT: That's true.

24 MR. BOIES: With respect to the second question, this 25 is somebody who I think has done this -- very experienced, has

N61BDEUC

1 done this before. I think both parties have confidence in her.
2 We can obviously present her to the Court.

3 THE COURT: Let me ask this, first of all, what does
4 she charge?

5 MR. BOIES: We have a budget for that, your Honor.
6 She is relatively reasonable and --

7 THE COURT: Of course you're saying that from the 8 perspective of the lawyers in this case, but I understand that.

9 MR. BOIES: The defendants are paying half her cost,
10 so they have an incentive to ensure that it is not --

11 THE COURT: There we go. Did you or your friends,
12 your former adversaries now your bosom pals, consider anyone
13 else?

14 MR. BOIES: We did. There was another person who was 15 involved in the mediation who we considered. We also 16 considered a number of other people at various stages, and I
17 think that there was a consensus that this was somebody who was 18 very experienced, was relatively reasonable in terms of time.

19 THE COURT: When I've appointed, for example, special 20 masters, I always insist on two things. One is that the 21 parties present me with three candidates. And second that if I
22 don't like any of the three, I'll choose the fourth. And given 23 that the claims administrator here is going to be making in 24 effect quasi legal determinations, under tier two at least, I
25 think that's the way I'd like to proceed.

N61BDEUC

1 MR. BOIES: Very well, your Honor. We'll do that.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So the last question I have -- and 3 I don't want to be misunderstood. I thought that there were 4 many, many respects in which this was an excellent settlement,
5 and I appreciate the hard work of counsel in reaching it -- 30
6 percent seems awfully high.

7 MR. BOIES: I think in some respects it is, your 8 Honor. It is a number that finds a lot, as the Court is aware,
9 support both in this --

10 THE COURT: Well, there are cases all over the lot. I
11 think it turns on many factors and the case law says as much,
12 for example, in the Petrobas Securities fraud case where the 13 attorneys ask -- after a very extensive discovery and motion
14 practice, far more than what was involved here -- recover the 15 huge sum of $3.2 billion, they nevertheless felt that the most 16 they should ask for was 10 percent. And I felt after review
17 that I should give them six percent, six percent of 3.2
18 billion -- one of the main partners involved has since retired.
19 I can well understand why, but I do think this was excellent
20 work. As I said, I don't want to be misunderstood, but 30
21 percent strikes me as a little rich under the circumstances.

22 MR. BOIES: I think one of the things is that when we 23 put in our fee application, we obviously will have lodestar
24 cross check. And I think the Court will see that this is 25 something that -- there's been a tremendous amount of work done

N61BDEUC

1 in this case, including before the case was filed.

2 THE COURT: That's a fair point. That actually leads
3 me to, I said the last was my final question, but I lied. You
4 know now a lot of the victims. I understand that. But I'm not 5 so clear how you will effectively reach other victims.

6 MR. BOIES: We have two basic approaches. And just as 7 background to the Court, during the years in question, Jeffrey
8 Epstein's focus in terms of the women that he was trafficking
9 and recruiting shifted from what it had been in earlier years,
10 and he was focusing to a very, very large extent on women and 11 girls from Eastern Europe, particularly Poland, the Ukraine.

12 THE COURT: I saw that in your papers, yeah.

13 MR. BOIES: So one of the complications of the case
14 was dealing with a class like this, and we have really two ways
15 of approaching that. First and most important, we have a great 16 deal of information about individuals who had some kind contact
17 with Jeffrey Epstein during this period. That comes from, not 18 only the claims that were submitted to the estate, it comes 19 from looking at emails, looking at the records from various 20 governmental investigations to the extent we have access to 21 them.

22 The records, we took discovery of Jeffrey Epstein's
23 estate, and we have records from that. So we have considerable 24 amount of information about women who had some contact. And 25 what we are going to do is try to contact each one of them,

N61BDEUC

1 even though they may not be a class member, but to give them
2 notice of this and give them an opportunity to submit a claim.

3 Second, we've identified newspapers in Poland, the 4 Ukraine and Russia, and assuming that we can get --

5 THE COURT: Assuming the newspaper is still being
6 published in the Ukraine.

7 MR. BOIES: And make sure that we don't get sanction
8 for taking an ad in a Russian newspaper, we're going to publish 9 notices there. In addition to that, as part of the 10 investigation of this, we've had investigators who have 11 contacted women in each of these three countries. And we are 12 going to use them to help identify people.

13 THE COURT: That sounds very helpful. So I'm happy to 14 hear anything any counsel wants to add, but here's my view -- 15 and I will note for the record I very carefully reviewed the 16 submissions. I need to get from you -- and you tell me how 17 long you need, but it shouldn't be a long time -- a revised
18 notice and a revised proposed order that sets out the class,
19 and sets it out with enough specificity and particularity that 20 anyone looking at it who's not a lawyer could understand
21 whether they're a potential member of the class or not.

22 Secondly, I need a proposal of three people to be the 23 claims administrator, with not only their CVs and experience,
24 but also how much they're charging. And I think for now -- one
25 thing I like was the notice did recite what you were asking for

N61BDEUC

1 in attorney's fees. I'm not at all sure I'm going to give you
2 30 percent, but I haven't ruled it out, so I think the notice
3 should, as it does, reflect that's what you're asking for. So
4 if anyone wants to object, they can object. So I don't need
5 anything more now on that, but I will, as you correctly
6 intuited, want to follow-up later on with a lodestar check. So
7 how quickly can you get me the two things I need?

8 MR. BOIES: We can get you the revised notice very 9 quickly. We can give you that on Monday for sure. The issue
10 in terms of coming up with the three people --

11 MR. DOWDEN: Your Honor, we would be amenable for ten 12 days to get both of those to you. I think it's going to take 13 us a little bit of time to make sure the additional --

14 THE COURT: By my standard that's a little slow, but 15 all right. So, let's see, today is the 1st, so that will be 16 June 11. Assuming those are satisfactory to the Court, then I 17 would be inclined to preliminarily approve the settlement, and 18 also of course let you know whether we'll need a hearing on the 19 three candidates or whether I can decide that just from the 20 papers. So anything else we need to take up today?

21 MR. DOWDEN: Your Honor, one other thing, I think June
22 11th is a Sunday.

23 THE COURT: Yes, your normal working day. So the 12th
24 is the -- is the 12th a holiday?

25 MR. DOWDEN: No, it's not.

N61BDEUC

1 THE COURT: That's right. It's the next week. I'm 2 sorry. What's the next business day? That would be the 12th or 3 the 13th?

4 MR. DOWDEN: The 12th, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: The 12th then is fine. Okay. Very good.
6 Anything else anyone else needs to raise with the Court?

7 MR. BOIES: No. Thank you, your Honor.

8 MR. DOWDEN: Thank you, your Honor.
